City of Fort Pierce Commissioners Seek Community Residents to Serve on City Boards

Fort Pierce City Commissioners are looking for civic-minded residents to serve on various advisory boards and committees, including an immediate need for individuals to serve on the Planning Board.

There are more than one dozen committees and advisory boards, including Code Enforcement Board, Communitywide Council, Historic Preservation Board and others. These groups make recommendations and provide valuable input into the decisions made by the City Commissioners. Some committees have specific requirements; please inquire when submitting an application. For more information about serving on the various advisory boards and committees contact the City Clerk's Office at (772) 460-2200. Applications are available on the City's website at <http://www.cityoffortpierce.com/pitchIn.html> (click on the right-hand side to open link).
